

Evolve IP Recognized on CRN Next-Gen 250 List

Annual List Highlights Technology Providers Transforming Business with Emerging Technologies

WAYNE, Pa. — January 7, 2019 — Evolve IP®, The Cloud Strategy Company™ today announced that it has been named to the Next-Gen 250 by CRN, a brand of the Channel Company. The annual list identifies IT solution providers who have embraced emerging technologies and are setting the pace for the rest of the channel in their adoption. Those on the list have been able to meet their customers' ever-changing IT needs for leading-edge technologies.

Evolve IP was included on the list as one of the world's fastest growing cloud strategy companies and a provider of integrated, analyst-acclaimed cloud solutions to more than 1,900 enterprises and over 420,000 users. Many of the world's most recognizable brands rely on the company's Evolve IP OneCloud™ strategy to migrate integrated cloud computing and cloud communications services onto a single, unified platform including: contact centers, virtual desktops, IP phone systems / unified communications and collaboration, identity management, disaster recovery, IaaS, and more.

"Our integrated and strategic approach to the cloud is a powerful and unique differentiator and we appreciate that CRN has included us on their list of the Next-Gen 250," said Tim Allen, Chief Sales and Marketing Officer of Evolve IP. "Businesses are now fully committed to cloud services and are wrestling with the right way to manage multiple vendors and disparate, unintegrated solutions. What our clients and partners have found is that when working with Evolve IP they deploy services faster, get more for their money and are better able to focus on new initiatives that drive their businesses forward."

"The innovative solution providers on our list have adapted to a rapidly-evolving marketplace and learned to leverage new technology as a competitive advantage," said Bob Skelley, CEO of The Channel Company. "The 2018 Next-Gen 250 list is comprised of forward-thinking companies who deliver solutions designed to meet an unprecedented set of customer needs. We congratulate each team on its vision and influence in the overall progression of the IT channel."
